

LEGAL NOTICES.

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at West Town street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS for New London County: I hereby apply for a license to sell and exchange spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider in the building at 273-274 Main street, Town of Norwich, except in the rooms and apartments in said building, any part or parts of which are cut off or partitioned in such manner as to form booths, side rooms, or retiring rooms. My place of business is not located within two hundred feet in a direct line from any church edifice or public or parochial school, or the premises pertaining thereto, or any postoffice, public library, or cemetery. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. J. J. Murphy, Applicant. We, the undersigned, are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich, and hereby sign and endorse the foregoing application of J. J. Murphy for a license, and hereby certify that said applicant is a suitable person to be licensed pursuant to said application. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Michael Finnegan, Frank J. Atwood, John J. Murphy, Benjamin C. Hannis, Patrick Finnegan. I hereby certify that the above named signers and endorers are electors and taxpayers, owning real estate in the Town of Norwich. Dated at Norwich, this 14th day of October, A. D. 1909. Chas. S. Holbrook, Town Clerk, oct15F

PEOPLES STORE

New Fall Goods

The best shadings for fall wear will be found in the different weaves and the prices are mighty attractive. BROADCLOTH, black and colors, $1.00, $1.50 per yard. PRUNELLAS, 75c, $1.00 per yard. SERGES, all wool, shrunk and sponged, 75c per yard. SERGES, guaranteed all wool, 50c per yard. SERGES, fancy weaves, all wool, 50c per yard. POPLAR CLOTH, all colors, 25c a yard.

"Trade with US and Save Money"
ISAAC CHAMPEAU, Mgr.
Putnam, Conn.
Agents for Standard Patterns.
Lewandowski's French Dyes and Cleaners.

Telephone 19-2
In Stock
All New for Fall and Winter

Ladies' Fine Tailored Suits

The very latest styles and bought from manufacturers of the highest reputation for fit and workmanship.

Also a great variety of Coats for Ladies, Misses and Children at the Boston Dry Goods Store

DANIELSON, - - - CONN.
The prices have been marked very close for Cash Sales. This means a saving from ordinary prices. Extraordinary bargains are being offered all through the store to still further reduce stock.

The Boston Dry Goods Company,
Danielson, Conn.
JAMES E. KEECH, Manager.

JOSEPH BRADFORD, Book Binder.
Blank Books Made and Bound to Order.
108 BROADWAY,
Telephone 484

PERSONS TALKED ABOUT

According to an apparently authentic report, Admiral Sir John Fisher, senior naval lord of the admiralty, will retire from the admiralty October 22, and be elevated to the peerage with the title of Baron Theford.

Frank Wranzel, the actress who abandoned the stage for the Salvation Army and then wanted to divorce her husband so she could marry a Salvationist, has been placed in an asylum by her parents. She is apparently insane.

Mrs. Dewey C. Bailey, president of the Denver woman's club, has been endorsed by the state woman's club of Colorado for the nomination for congress in the first district. Mrs. Bailey is the wife of the United States marshal of Colorado.

The widow and three children of Pat Cavanaugh, the well known long-distance walker, who died about a year ago, are being taken care of by their home in Trenton, N. J. His widow first became ill a week ago and was sent to the hospital.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California, the new Roosevelt professor at the University of Berlin and Prof. G. W. Moore of Harvard, this year's exchange professor, have arrived in Berlin at the Hotel Rome.

An open-air theater in a natural hollow amid the trees adjoining his home in the Claremont section of Berkeley, Cal., are built by Charles Koeler, the poet. The new theater will have a flat piece of stone of large size as a stage.

When Scott Morgan walked into the home of his half-sister, Mrs. S. F. Clifton, in Rushville, Ind., recently he thought it was a specter from the grave, as he disappeared 30 years ago and was thought to be dead. He had trouble with his wife's relatives over some financial matter and left suddenly.

Pittsburg is filled with rumors of the retirement of John G. A. Leishman, United States minister to Turkey from the post at Constantinople to become head of an independent combine in steel interests now being formed by H. C. Peck, the Mellon interest at Pittsburg and others of financial standing.

Rev. Calvin B. Moody for the last six years pastor of the First Congregational church Bristol Conn., has resigned the pastorate to accept the presidency of Kingsford college, Ok. Mr. Moody will take up his new duties in December. He is a graduate of Middlebury college and the Hartford theological seminary.

After spending several months at her father's home in Manchester-by-the-Sea, where she laid out the plan of the campaign which her husband, Sir John Lane Harrington, is going to follow in his fight for parliamentary honors in the fall, Lady Harrington sailed for England a few days ago, eager to plunge into the midst of political battles.

In Donald Johnson, a Centerville, Wis., lad, born with one arm, Paderewski, the celebrated pianist, believes he has found a genius who will become world-famed. The lad will soon leave for New York and Switzerland, where stage and will have a seating capacity of about 500.

Capt. Inman Sealby of the ill-fated White Star liner Republic, which was wrecked last February, has enrolled as a student in the law department of the University of Michigan.

The death of Charles Russell Strugis of Boston, lawyer and trustee for various estates, was announced as the culmination of a sickness contracted in Paris while on his honeymoon but a short time ago.

Miss Nellie Horton of Fort Worth, Tex., has been elected treasurer and secretary of the Farmers' union of the state. She has just passed her 25th birthday. The Farmers' union is said to have upward of 250,000 members.

William Lucas, day yardmaster at the west yard of the Pennsylvania railroad at Wilmington, Del., bears a striking resemblance to President Taft, both in stature and features. He has just returned from Denver, where he was photographing for that of the president, who was there at the same time.

When Scott Morgan walked into the home of his half-sister, Mrs. S. F. Clifton, in Rushville, Ind., recently he thought it was a specter from the grave, as he disappeared 30 years ago and was thought to be dead. He had trouble with his wife's relatives over some financial matter and left suddenly.

Pittsburg is filled with rumors of the retirement of John G. A. Leishman, United States minister to Turkey from the post at Constantinople to become head of an independent combine in steel interests now being formed by H. C. Peck, the Mellon interest at Pittsburg and others of financial standing.

Rev. Calvin B. Moody for the last six years pastor of the First Congregational church Bristol Conn., has resigned the pastorate to accept the presidency of Kingsford college, Ok. Mr. Moody will take up his new duties in December. He is a graduate of Middlebury college and the Hartford theological seminary.

After spending several months at her father's home in Manchester-by-the-Sea, where she laid out the plan of the campaign which her husband, Sir John Lane Harrington, is going to follow in his fight for parliamentary honors in the fall, Lady Harrington sailed for England a few days ago, eager to plunge into the midst of political battles.

In Donald Johnson, a Centerville, Wis., lad, born with one arm, Paderewski, the celebrated pianist, believes he has found a genius who will become world-famed. The lad will soon leave for New York and Switzerland, where

Edwin Ginn, the Boston publisher, is maturing plans for an international bureau and school of peace. The details are now being worked out by Edwin D. Mead and Miss Anna B. Eckstein, both widely known peace advocates. The institute will be known as the International School of Peace, with a permanent foundation of $50,000 and an endowment at Mr. Ginn's death.

Charles M. Pratt, president of Pratt institute, Brooklyn, and general secretary of the Standard Oil company, made known a new gift to the institution in the course of his address at the founder's day exercises, held in Manhattan last night. The new endowment fund to the institute amounts to $1,700,000. The

Below are some prices that will interest customers. Please NOTE we are here to please and not to be pleased.

REVERE FINE SUGAR..... 18 lbs. for $1.00
FANCY CANNED CORN..... 9c can, 3 for 25c
FANCY CANNED TOMATOES..... 8c can
PURE LEAF LARD..... 16c lb.
TEAS, all kinds..... 40c lb.
BAKER'S COCOA..... 20c can
SWIFT'S PRIDE SOAP..... 7 bars for 25c
BROKEN RICE..... 5c lb., 6 for 25c
TOASTED RICE BISCUIT..... 3 for 25c
FAMOUS LATOURAINE COFFEE..... 30c lb.

—Service Unexcelled—

The Danielson Cotton Co. Store,
MAIN STREET, DANIELSON.
Cars stop on the corner opposite store.

Good Things To Eat

Extra fine English Walnut Meats, 10c ¼ lb, 40c a lb.
Genuine Spanish Salted Peanuts, 5c a package.
Molasses Kisses, 15c a lb.
Gypsy Kisses, peanut butter center, 5c ¼ lb, 19c a lb.
Chocolate Cream Drops, 10c a lb.
Wintergreen and Peppermint Cream Wafers, 10c a lb.

—AT—

THE 3 KEYSTONE STORES,

Danielson, Putnam, Moosup.

FACTORY for SALE or RENT

140x25 ft. 3 story and basement. 30 horse power. Only 300 feet from R. R. freight station at a railroad junction. Fine shipping point.
250x50 Brick Mill, 2 story, on R. R. siding. Modern mill construction. Boiler capacity 200 h. p.
100x33 Brick 2 story, modern construction. 30 h. p. engine. Lighted and heated. With main shafting all in place.

Address for particulars Box 147, Putnam, Conn.

he will be educated musically at the expense of Paderewski.

Adolph O. Eberhart, the successor of the late Governor Johnson, is the first day the governor of Minnesota has had since 1904.

Martha Watson, a negress, who claimed to be ninety-nine years old, died in the Jamaica hospital of age. Her mother died at the age of 104, and she was born a slave.

Dr. David H. Cochran, for more than 30 years president of the Polytechnic institute in Brooklyn, died in that borough of the infirmities of age. He was 82 years old and had been failing since an attack of apoplexy last spring.

For the second time in his life, John King, a water tender on the coast cruiser Salem, who hails from Ireland, but who enlisted from New York, has been awarded a medal of honor for extraordinary heroism by the navy department.

To commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of Adeline Patti's first appearance on the stage, a Paris lithographer has published a booklet containing a short biography of the singer and extracts from the scores of the operas in which she had the greatest success.

Henry T. Legler, secretary of the Wisconsin free library commission, is the new head of the Chicago public library. This is a civil service position and the examination of candidates was conducted by a special board headed by Dr. Herbert Putnam, librarian of congress.

Louis T. Stensgaard, a prominent St. Paul banker, who vanished following his failure in 1888 and subsequent acquittal on a charge of forgery, was found dead in a rooming house in the city of St. Paul, recently by his youngest son Thorvald, who was 10 years old when his father disappeared 21 years ago.

Samuel Loy, who was a corporal in the Third Pennsylvania Heavy artillery in the civil war, died in Pittsburg, Loy was in charge of the guards at Fort Monroe, where President Jefferson Davis was confined after the war. His life was unusual, he having faced death on the battlefield scores of times.

Mrs. Arthur Slade of New York is the president of the Ely club, which has just opened a club house where women are to be received. The club can find a home in New York. A small charge for board will be made and the applicants for membership have to be recommended by some one of the graduates of the Ely school, who organized the club and have it in charge.

Edwin Ginn, the Boston publisher, is maturing plans for an international bureau and school of peace. The details are now being worked out by Edwin D. Mead and Miss Anna B. Eckstein, both widely known peace advocates. The institute will be known as the International School of Peace, with a permanent foundation of $50,000 and an endowment at Mr. Ginn's death.

Charles M. Pratt, president of Pratt institute, Brooklyn, and general secretary of the Standard Oil company, made known a new gift to the institution in the course of his address at the founder's day exercises, held in Manhattan last night. The new endowment fund to the institute amounts to $1,700,000. The

Below are some prices that will interest customers. Please NOTE we are here to please and not to be pleased.

REVERE FINE SUGAR..... 18 lbs. for $1.00
FANCY CANNED CORN..... 9c can, 3 for 25c
FANCY CANNED TOMATOES..... 8c can
PURE LEAF LARD..... 16c lb.
TEAS, all kinds..... 40c lb.
BAKER'S COCOA..... 20c can
SWIFT'S PRIDE SOAP..... 7 bars for 25c
BROKEN RICE..... 5c lb., 6 for 25c
TOASTED RICE BISCUIT..... 3 for 25c
FAMOUS LATOURAINE COFFEE..... 30c lb.

—Service Unexcelled—

The Danielson Cotton Co. Store,
MAIN STREET, DANIELSON.
Cars stop on the corner opposite store.

Competition Killed

Our Rubber Goods going at cut prices at the very opening of the season.

Rubber Footwear for Men, Women and Children at reduced prices.

No shoe store in Danielson can touch our low prices.

HENRY DEMBO,
220 Main Street, Keystone Block, oct22F

State of Connecticut QUARTERMASTER'S DEPARTMENT

Office of the Acting Quartermaster General
Hartford, October 19th, 1909

This office offers for sale to the highest bidder the wooden building (4) now standing on the state property at Armory square, Danielson, Conn., to be removed by the purchaser within fifteen (15) days after November 1st, 1909.

Bids should be addressed to Gen. George M. Cole as above and should be accompanied by certified check for full amount of bid.
oct22d

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Of Eastern Connecticut.

NORWICH FIRMS

AUTOMOBILE STATION.
E. J. Cott, 6 Otis Street. Automobile and Bicycle Repairing. General Machine work. Jobbing. Phone.

BUILDING MATERIAL.
Peck, McWilliams & Co., 47-49 West Lima. Portland Cement. Parlor Roofing.

BOTTLE MAKER.
H. Jackel, cor. Market and Water Sts. A complete line of the best Ale, Lager and Soda. Delivery. Tel. 131-5.

"THE FOUR-MINUTE RECORD."
Come in and hear it. It's something great.
Geo. F. Yeomans, 22½ Lafayette St.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
Geo. E. Bachelder, Room 2, 65 Broadway. Real Estate and Investment Broker. Notary Public. Auditing and Expert Accountant. Telephone 515.

donors are Mr. Pratt and his sister, Mrs. E. B. Dane.

Mrs. Russell Sage gave $30,000 to Syracuse university on her last birthday. The money is to be used as an endowment fund for the teachers' college.

Thomas Morris of La Crosse, a member of the Wisconsin senate, is said to be the choice of the La Pollette element of the republican party in that state for governor.

Rodriguez's statue of Victor Hugo, which was the subject of much criticism when it was exhibited at the Paris salon, has been accepted in the garden of the Palais Royal.

Miss Elizabeth Wright, who doesn't belong to the aeroplane family, nevertheless has a right to be called a pioneer, because she was the first woman to become a pilot of an airplane.

Frank B. Sanborn is almost convinced that the Junius letters were composed by Thomas Pownall, an able and accomplished statesman of Massachusetts, and that Philip Francis was his amanuensis.

Congressman Champ Clark, democratic leader in the house of representatives, and who hails from Bowling Green, Mo., is scheduled to lecture before the teachers' institute of Pennsylvania.

Lord Kinnaird, speaking at the annual meeting of the British Royal Normal college for the blind, drew attention to the interesting fact that 80 per cent of the college students became self-supporting.

Helen Mathers, who in private life is Mrs. Russell Sage, is the author of the English-speaking world as the author of the novel of country life, "Comin' Thro' the Rye," has decided definitely to lay down her pen.

Edward B. Sterling of Trenton, N. J., has discovered in the outskirts of the town the most important deposit of barium on record. The mushroom weighs 43 pounds, is 13 inches in height and measures 16 inches in circumference.

After a courtship of two years, which began in the desert, Buel, a Funk, cowboy and artist, and Miss Helen Muir, daughter of John Muir, the noted naturalist, author and geologist, were married in Los Angeles by the Rev. J. A. Henry.

When Dorando, the Marathon runner, married, a short time ago, the ceremony was at 5 o'clock in the morning to escape the enthusiasm of his neighbors in Capri, Italy. The entire town planned a holiday, and Dorando shrank from the ordeal.

The Higgen family of Springfield and Albany, takes naturally to politics. George C. Higgen, brother of Thomas L. Independence league candidate for president a year ago, is to be nominated for mayor of Albany by the democrats and independents.

Stern reader of facts, successful banker and politician, the recipient of the highest gift in the power of the people of his state, former Gov. E. G. Stokes of New Jersey is said to have covered to have a fact. That is an almost superstitious regard for wearing a straw hat until the primaries are over.

Dr. W. L. McEwan, pastor of the Third Presbyterian church, Pittsburg, one of the most prominent ministers of the denomination in Pennsylvania, and twice candidate for the moderatorship of the general assembly, has been elected to the chair of Moral Philosophy in Princeton theological seminary. He has taken the offer under consideration.

Writing in the Medical Record, Dr. James J. Walsh, dean of Fordham university, has been chosen to be the first hospital ever built in America was erected by the Spaniard Cortez in Mexico City in 1524. It was an enormous building, the tower of the properties conferred on him by the Spanish crown for his services in the conquest of Mexico.

Leoncavallo has written a new comic opera which was heard a few days ago by some of the composer's intimate friends in Rome. The title is "Malbruc" and the libretto is founded on incidents in Boccaccio's "Decamerone." The music is in the style of the adventures of General Malbruc, whose young cousin interferes with the even tenor of the general's household relations.

Forty miles a day is only a jaunt for E. Forrest Crooks of Massillon, O., said Samuel R. Mather of St. Louis, Mo., who has been visiting in Akron, O., to Seattle, Wash., since leaving Akron, on September 18, and expect to arrive in Seattle in about five months.

The oldest college janitor in this country, Harlow Raymond, who has been caretaker of the Wesleyan university building for forty years, has next in his resignation, to take effect next March. On November 12 he will be 80 years old, and is still hale and hearty. To several generations of Wesleyan men he is affectionately known as "Doc Raymond."

Mrs. Van Wyck has been appointed assistant secretary of the Associated Charities of Milwaukee, following the suggestion of the Sage charity work in New York. The second time she should do the work. The splendid organization of the Sage foundation has made more evident the need of trained workers in all charity effort throughout the country.

Maria Magliocco, arrested in Naples for pawning jewels belonging to another, is the only woman who ever followed the profession of bullfighting. She was born in Algeria, her father was a shipowner and her mother an Arab. She ran away from home when 15 years old and after several years spent in vagabondage, she disguised herself as a man and fought as a matador in Spain.

The wife of the mayor of Southampton, England, a popular seashore resort, has opened the first nursery of its kind in the world. It is a series of comfortable canvas tents supplied with coats, trained nurses and all accessories, where women visiting the resort may leave their babies to be cared for while they are enjoying their holiday. The babies are fed and tended free of charge.

Miss Ruhama Skidmore, who was recently re-elected foreign secretary of the United States Geographical society, has held the position for two years. She represented the society at the international congress held in London in 1887, on which occasion she assisted the late Sir George B. Pett-Coutts in receiving the members of the congress at a garden party.

The Dowager Duchess d'Uzes, in spite of her age, one of the most energetic women in France, is the president of the Lyceum